Customer Reviews

Our family now includes young children and pre-schoolers. This Haggadah is colorful and beautifully illustrated. It includes creative activities for the kids and the adults as well as the traditional elements. I highly recommend it!

We have lots of young children and antsy adults at our seder table, so this haggadah was perfect! It has all the stuff you want - ha lachma anya, vehi sheamda, dayenu, hallel in HEBREW, not English like in so many children's haggadot, but the story of Passover is condensed and understandable. We got through the first part of the seder in an hour, and the kids were engaged and active. I am buying six more and this will be my official haggadah until the kids are grown (and maybe even then, too!).

I was looking for a nice haggadah for the 2nd seder that I could use to liven things up and make the 2nd seder more "young kid friendly." This seder was ok for that purpose, not great. I thought it could have done a better job storytelling (there is some of that, just not a lot). I'm going to keep looking for that perfect, 2nd seder haggadah!

We used this Haggadah at a Seder where people ranged from age 2-68, everyone (including those with a more traditional seder typically) felt that this Haggadah covered everything it ought to and made for a well balanced Seder, plenty to read and learn but also plenty to sing and enjoy!

We had several young children, and guests who were attending their first Seder. This Haggadah was an excellent guide for a Seder that made everyone feel welcome, included and interested.

Better than I expected for it's intended purpose. This book was recommended and I'm glad I purchased the book. The price was great too.
